

Remember, the adverbs tell you either when, where, how or how often the verb happens.

1. I went to the beach yesterday. (Tells us when I went.)
2. Occasionally, I like to draw and paint. (Tells us how I draw/paint.)
3. Her stomach noisily rumbled. (Tells us how it rumbled)
4. She looked at the gift with hope in her heart. (Tells us how she looked.)
5. Inside the house, mum could hear the squeals of laughter. (Tells us where she could hear it.)
6. She cautiously searched the room. (Tells us how she searched)