

Thursday 14th May – LO: To recognise and use appropriate determiners

Determiners are words that come before a noun. They introduce the noun and can give the reader important information about it.

They can be split into different types of determiners, which again can be split, based on how they are used. See separate grid on next page.

Specific determiners

Your writing is brilliant!

They put on their snow boots.

I love these flowers!

General determiners

Can you bring the other pens please?

Mum baked twelve cupcakes.

I would love some more chocolates!

NOW Identify the determiners in the sentences below by underling them with a ruler. Then write what type of determiner they are on the dotted line at the end of the sentence.

1. Jessie put her leather hat on before going out.
2. John saw several dogs whilst walking in the park.
3. These grapes came out of that crate.
4. "Are there any left?" asked Nell.
5. The Year 4 team are missing you all greatly.

General These refer to general nouns or nouns that the reader does not know. General determiners can also tell the reader how many nouns you are talking about; these are called quantifiers.		Specific These refer to a specific noun. Use specific determiners when the reader knows exactly what noun you are referring to.
general determiners	quantifiers	definite article	definite determiners	possessive determiners
a	some	the	this	their any	five		those	your
an	few		these	her
other	more		that	my
another	all			his
what	enough			whose
	many			our

--	---	--	--	--

MILD: Use the range of determiners to fill in the blanks with appropriate determiners.

HOT: Use the range of determiners to fill in the blanks with appropriate determiners then write 4 of your own sentences about your animal or the experience of meeting it in the camp.

SPICY: Use the range of determiners to fill in the blanks with appropriate determiners then write 8 of your own sentences about your animal or the experience of meeting it in the camp.

_____ Mum made us a picnic tea, full of delicious treats.

I heard _____ loud snapping noises.

It was _____ loudest and scariest noise I had ever heard.

We had all had _____ of the anxiety.

It could not get _____ worse.

What was _____?

Now write your own sentences, using a range of determiners.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....