Let your light shine (Matthew 5:16) LOVE SELF OTHERS BEAUTY BEYOND

In Physical Education, children are given many opportunities to let their light shine and excel in a broad range of practical activities both during and beyond the school day. The wide range of life-enriching sporting experiences provided through this subject empower children to push themselves to their limits in the glory of God. The children grow and develop through the teaching and learning within six areas: Games, Dance, Gymnastics, Athletics, Outdoor Adventure and Swimming. They learn to value their strengths and accept their limitations, appreciating their bodies capabilities; we remind them that God is a good creator and encourage all of our children to live their lives in his image.

Christian Values

Courage: In PE, children develop courageous advocacy to make positive changes in the world. Whether showing courage by attempting new and challenging activities, striving to beat personal bests or not giving up in the face of adversity – PE and school sport had that unique ability to harness and shape children’s personal skills.

Fairness: Through a range of sporting experiences, offered by our school, children will develop a true sense of fair play and sportsmanship. During the social unit they are taught to be patient and accepting of one another’s ideas, to accept constructive feedback and to be law abiding. During sporting competition, they learn to treat others as they wish to be treated themselves. The act of shaking hands and giving 3 loud cheers is a way of demonstrating mutual respect to another as God would intend it.

Kindness: Children are able to show kindness in PE through taking turns, being positive about a peer’s performance and by helping the teacher with the general organisation of the lesson. They adhere to 6 school rules (displayed in class) and include everybody - no matter what their ability is alike in this subject.

Koinonia – Sport has the power to bring people together and in PE children will gain a sense of belonging as a part of a team or when working in groups. Working as a team, they will learn to collaborate and sometimes put others before themselves, appreciating others are also made in God’s image and treating them with an equal measure of respect and tolerance.

Responsibility – Children develop responsibility when given the ownership and freedom to make their own decisions. In PE, children can choose which FUNS (fundamental skills) level to attempt and are given the responsibility to set up, complete and pack away these challenges independently. They also have a responsibility to know where they are at with their own learning through self-assessment and recording personal bests.

Thankfulness: - Many children at our school enjoy their PE lessons and frequently show their gratitude for the fun practical activities they experience. Equally, many children attend after school sports clubs or represent the school at sporting competitions (Cross Country, Football, Netball, Athletics to

	Truthfulness – Children must show honesty and fairness to their peers when taking part in activities requiring the adherence of rules and regulations. They should be truthful with themselves when assessing their own performances and establishing the extent of their successes and achievements.
Spiritual Development	We encourage the children to be inspired by the levels of dedication and commitment it takes to reach the highest levels of performance. We want them to marvel at the beauty of sporting perfection and feel those moments of total satisfaction, achieving their own personal aspirations after putting their heart, body and soul on the line. Only through participating in physical activity themselves can they truly appreciate and respect those talented individuals and leading sporting role models, who set the benchmark for others to follow and show them the pathway to success. Through either individual personal challenges or being part of a unified team, we strive for our children to discover their own strengths and the strengths of others, accelerating their self-esteem and opening up positive relationships and a new love for one another through the sharing of positive sporting experiences. We hope they will forge a life-long participation in sport and leisure activities, benefiting from the physical, social and emotional gains to be had, achieving a sense of inner peace and gratification. Knowing PE lessons can also provide moments of personal failure or highlight limitations, our children will be encouraged to foster a growth mindset, empowering them to think positively in any situation. Through the subject of Physical Education, many children excel in leading others and we see them blossom to become responsible citizens, who volunteer their time and energy to help others achieve. PE and school sport has the power to make a difference to a child's life and through the combination of our broad and balanced high quality PE curriculum and the year-round extensive extra-curricular programme we offer; every child at Church Hill has the very best opportunity to reach their sporting potential and let their light shine bright.
