

Pupil Voice

Quotes of what children think of Religion and Worldviews

RE is good because it makes you think harder about your own ideas and beliefs – it's always better having your own ideas than using someone else's.

If there was no RE, we wouldn't be as respectful and tolerant to other religions in our society.

We learn RE because we like to talk and share about our different religions.