

I thought the best bit was moving round to do different things.

Learning about perspective was cool!

I love working with friends from other year groups on special Art days.

I loved the group painting it was messy but the picture looked great when we had finished.