Mutual Respect

12th May 2023

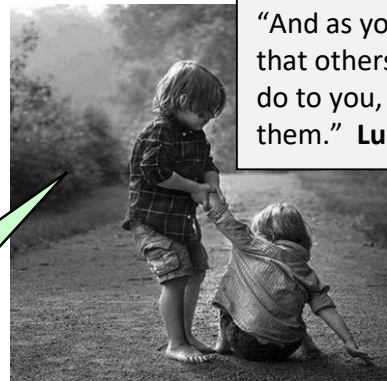

Respect is earned.
Honesty is appreciated.
Trust is gained and loyalty is returned.

WHERE THERE'S NO MUTUAL RESPECT,
THERE'S TROUBLE.

Dizzy Gillespie

What the bible says about Respect

"And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them." Luke 6:31

Mutual respect is about everyone being valued for who we are and what we bring to the community. It involves seeing people's unique contributions, recognising and understanding differences, and celebrating diversity. Furthermore, it is about understanding that we all don't share the same beliefs and values and, respecting the values, ideas, and beliefs of others, whilst not imposing our own on others, is key to a harmonious community.

In school, we believe that receiving respect from others is important because it helps us to feel safe and to express ourselves. Being respected by important people in our lives, such as friends, teachers and family members, teaches us how to be respectful toward others. If we can role-model respect in relationships, our children will build feelings of trust, safety, and a healthy sense of wellbeing.

Mutual Respect is a value that is important to us because it means we care about other people's feelings. It means that we treat other people the way we want to be treated which can be difficult especially when others have not shown mutual respect. We do this by promoting good manners, listening well to how people want to be treated, and by helping children to get to know one another and to become more informed about their differences.

Write an acrostic poem to show what Mutual Respect means to you. Here is an example

'REACH out to others and try to understand, EVERYONE deserves respect, it's mutual, so shake hands.

SPEND time listening to someone's point of view.

POLITENESS should be at the heart of everything you do.

EVERYONE is equal, always keep that fact in mind,

CARE for others and be considerate and kind.

TREAT others just the way you want to be treated too.

RESPECT others and they will RESPECT you!"

- How can children respect adults?
- How can adults respect children?
- How can children respect each other?
- How can we respect our school classroom and belongings?
- How can we respect ourselves.
